

It's no crime for any army to forge ahead.

Although the tussock moth says little it has a way of arriving.

London war reports have made fish stories dull and uninteresting.

Vacation is merely a mad competition to spend in two weeks the savings of a season.

Where are the sentimentalists? Why not a society for the protection of hungry sharks?

Efficiency may be a much overworked word, but that only tends to prove its efficiency.

A European ruler always swells up and speaks of "my troops" when they're winning.

A goodly portion of Europe doesn't care where it eats its Christmas dinner, just so it eats.

Nobody loves the neutral now, but after the war he will be hailed as everybody's best friend.

Returning vacationists are convinced that after all a rich brown tan is not much as a tangible asset.

Aside from the fact that our aeroplanes on the border will not fly, they are pretty good aeroplanes.

Cleanliness is coming to be an essential to business success in the handling of foods. This is progress.

Some of the best road records of the season are being made by American aviators walking back.

"Money makes the mare go," but owing to high prices of gasoline, it's now an auto that makes the money go.

The fault of our time and manners is, men are too apt to regard an office a place to browse in instead of serve in.

Maine fisherman says he knows fish can talk. When they have anything to say they probably tell it to the marines.

Fortunately, it is not necessary to appeal to the supreme court to decide whether every tennis service is in or out.

What the world most needs is a Winsted hen that will lay an egg with the word "Peace" indelibly etched in the shell.

Another costly variety of paper is that upon which are written the notes that are bases for breach of promise suits.

It is announced that there is $380,201,707 in the Philadelphia mint. That is one of the finest mint beds we ever heard of.

"Few men," sagely observes a wise guy, "know what is really in them." They should try eating ice cream with pork and beans.

Beneath the thwarted patriotism of the tens of thousands of prisoners of war in Europe there lies the consolation of a chance to live and maintain possession of two hands and two feet.

The man who leads a dual life is a consummate scoundrel, but the man who wears himself to a frazzle trying to support one family, stern though he be in condemnation of the fellow who supports two, hands it to him for managerial genius.

Nearly all the members of the militia wear wrist watches. Nobody questions the utility or desirability of the wrist watch in the field; it's only the soft chap who wears it in the ballroom who makes a joke of it.

When a moving picture serial is given the managers should take pains to see that the plot moves along a little every week or so.

It seems that it is a fad of the North sea fishermen to hear the noise of naval battles that never happen.

That San Francisco Judge's proposal for shooting feeble-minded jurors hasn't been carried out yet, we understand, but the juries are still compelled to suffer the gas attacks of the lawyers.

As soon as a possible shortage of leather was announced Dame Fashion, with characteristic extravagance, made the shoetop higher than ever.

One of the pitiful sights in life is to see a man with a plan for ending the war trying to raise a car window.

It must be embarrassing to the guests at the summer hotels to have to give the orders to college girl waiters who know how to pronounce the menus.

A Cleveland pastor thinks Darwin is to blame for the war. Still, when getting right back to first principles, Adam and Eve were probably fundamentally to blame.

With gasoline and golf balls both cheaper the sufferings of the unfortunate rich are somewhat alleviated.

NEWS TO DATE IN PARAGRAPHS

CAUGHT FROM THE NETWORK OF WIRES ROUND ABOUT THE WORLD.

DURING THE PAST WEEK

RECORD OF IMPORTANT EVENTS
CONDENSED FOR BUSY PEOPLE.

ABOUT THE WAR

Italian armies score further advances on the Trentino sector.

Unofficial advices say a revolutionary provisional government has been set up on the island of Crete.

Allied transport laden with troops sunk by a submarine in the Mediterranean, says Berlin admiralty report.

Athens diplomatic circles report that the Austrians are about to evacuate Trieste, the chief port of the Teutonic powers on the Adriatic.

British troops on Somme advance a mile, capturing German trenches. Other allied successes reported by French and British war offices.

Berlin estimates that the entente allied armies on the Somme have lost 500,000 men in killed, wounded and prisoners as a result of the recent offensive over the long front.

Ninety thousand Germans under the personal command of Field Marshal von Hindenburg cut to pieces by the French on the Somme, according to a report to a Paris newspaper, La Liberte.

Two British subjects and thirty-six out of thirty-eight Carranza soldiers were killed when Villistas raided an oil camp near Tuxpam Sept. 15, according to officers of the tank steamer Topila, which arrived at Galveston, Tex.

The tide in the great battle for possession of Dobruja has turned in favor of the Teutonic forces, says Berlin, claiming that the flank of the Russo-Rumanian army has been turned and that the enemy beat a hasty retreat in disorder.

Important Teutonic successes reported from Sofia, which declares Serbian troops have been routed. Allied war statements forwarded to Paris and London via Saloniki dispute the official reports issued by war offices of the central powers.

WESTERN

Butte, Mont., was selected as the 1918 meeting place for the International Brotherhood of Carpenters.

Storming the jail, fifty armed men lynched Bert Dudley, avenging the brutal murder of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Muller, for which he was convicted at Olathe, Kan.

Hipolito Villa, brother of Francisco Villa, and his financial agent in the days when Juarez was a wide open town, was released from federal custody and set at liberty.

Prospectors, speculators and, in one instance, a Denver oil company, have been turned back recently from the Lost Soldier and Mahoney Dome oil lands in Wyoming by the withdrawal of the land from entry.

While on his way to attend the funeral of his lifelong friend, Nicholas Krieger, at St. Cloud, Daniel Kempf, 92 years old, a Fond Du Lac county, Wis., pioneer, was struck and instantly killed by a freight train.

Military funeral services for Col. John H. Beacom, Sixth United States Infantry, who died recently while commanding this regiment at Colonia Dublan, Mex., were held at El Paso, Tex. The body was sent to Wellsville, Ohio, his former home, for burial.

WASHINGTON

An interest rate of 3½ per cent for fifteen-day notes at the Dallas Federal Reserve Bank was approved by the reserve board.

Miss Phyllis Julia Neilson-Terry, the English actress, and Cecil Frank King Ogden, her manager, were married in the British consulate at New Orleans, La.

Austria-Hungary has decided to grant permission for re-establishment of American Red Cross units in the dual monarchy, withdrawn several months ago because of lack of funds.

Two Wyoming National guard infantry battalions, Troop A of the Kansas cavalry and Troop B of the Wisconsin cavalry were ordered to the Mexican border by the War Department.

The Department of Justice clamped down the lid on the pending blackmail prosecutions. Hereafter, officials of the department say, the cases "will be prosecuted in the courts and not in the newspapers."

Brig. Gen. J. J. Pershing, commander of the American punitive expedition in Mexico and ranking brigadier of the army, probably will be made a major general, a vacancy in that grade having been created by the death of Major General Mills.

Consul General Skinner at London cabled the State Department that two American sailors, William Wootton of Harrison, N. J., and Bernard Sweeney of Bayonne, N. J., were saved from the British steamer Strathay, torpedoed by a submarine Sept. 6 in the English channel.

FOREIGN

A son was born at Peking to the wife of Dr. Paul Samuel Rehnach, United States minister to China.

Many lives have been lost and enormous damage has been caused near Gablenz, Bohemia, by the bursting of a dam in the valley at Weissendesse. Advances from Constantinople, says the Overseas News Agency, tell of a mutiny among troops of the Russian Caucasus army because of lack of provisions.

That typhus fever again is becoming a serious menace throughout Mexico was the statement of a passenger arriving from San Luis Potosi at Laredo, Tex.

The landings, or upper house of the Danish Parliament, will finish the readings on the government's bill to sell the Danish West Indies to the United States.

Capt. David Henderson, son of Arthur Henderson, president of the London Board of Education and labor leader in the House of Commons, was killed in action.

Chen Chin-Tao, the Chinese minister of finance, formally asked the quintuple group of bankers, for a $50,000,000 reorganization loan on the security of the salt monopoly surplus.

A verdict of accidental death was returned by the coroner's jury at Quebec at the inquest into the loss of thirteen lives in the collapse of the central span of the Quebec bridge on Sept. 11.

The railway crisis in London arising out of the demand of the men for an increase of 10 shillings a week in their wages has been settled on the basis of doubling the war bonus. This is a compromise, giving the men half the 10 shillings demanded.

SPORTING NEWS

Standing of Western League Clubs.
Club Won Lost Pct.
Omaha 84 55 .606
Lincoln 84 71 .543
Sioux City 78 49 .613
Des Moines 73 52 .585
Denver 76 75 .503
Topeka 67 83 .447
St. Joseph 65 85 .432
Colorado Springs 56 92 .375

Loveland High school again will make a bid for the Northern Colorado interscholastic football championship this fall, and a squad of twenty-one men are now going through a rigorous course of training.

J. W. Hubbel, representing Harvard, won the individual intercollegiate golf championship on the links of the Oakmont Country Club at Oakmont at Pittsburgh, Pa., by defeating D. C. Corkran of Princeton, 1 up.

While leading the field in an automobile race at the county fair at Sturgis, S. D., Bernard J. Webster, merchant of Rapid City received injuries from which he died. The car turned turtle on a curve and Webster's chest was crushed.

The first accident of the football season in Denver has fallen on a South Side high school player, Jack Salsbury, is carrying his arm in a sling as a result of one of the first scrimmages of the team. His arm was dislocated and he may be out of the game for the entire year.

Braden Direct was the winner of the free-for-all race in the Great Western Circuit meet at the Illinois State Fair at Springfield. The horses paced the second mile in 2:04½, the fastest mile of the meet. Baby Helen was winner of the 2:20 pace for 3-year-olds and Marie Constant was first in the 2:25 trot. Diamond Q was winner of the 2:15 pace in straight heats.

GENERAL

Philadelphia was definitely chosen as the site of the 1919 triennial convocation of the Knights Templar.

Gen. Funston said he placed full credence in the report of Villa's attack on Chihuahua city, sent to the War Department by Brig. Gen. George Bell.

The Mexican conference at New London, Conn., reached a stage which enabled the American commissioners to predict that a satisfactory settlement would be arrived at within two weeks.

At Hartford, Conn., Mrs. Amy E. Archer-Gilligan, charged with poisoning five inmates of her home for Elderly People at Windsor, was indicted for first-degree murder on five counts by the grand jury.

Pope Benedict has conferred upon the Right Reverend Theophile Meerschardt, bishop of Oklahoma, who recently celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of his consecration, the title of count and assistant to the pontifical throne.

The suicide of Joseph Tuma, head of the Tuma Savings Bank, a private institution, and the indictment of four private bankers were developments in Chicago's "epidemic" of private bank failures, and a general inquiry into their institutions.

Katherine Gould, divorced wife of Howard Gould, New York multimillionaire, got judgment for $11,740.75 against her stepfather, J. W. Dayan of Palo Alto, Cal., on a note executed to Timothy Hopkins in 1896 and acquired by Mrs. Gould in 1901.

Men of nation-wide prominence, representatives of educational and financial institutions, and delegations from civic, historical and political organizations, paid tribute to the memory of former Mayor Seth Low at his funeral in New York.

Foreign ships arriving at Newport News for cargo and coal have reported to the British authorities that there is another German raider in the Atlantic.

The epidemic of infantile paralysis in New York was declared by Health Department officials to be at an end.

NEW MEXICO STATE NEWS

Western Newspaper Union News Service.

COMING EVENTS.
Sept. 27-29—First annual Cowboy's General Roundup at Tucuman.
Sept. 28—Fair at Greenville.
Oct. 2—Woman's Clubs' annual meeting at Las Vegas.
Oct. 3-6—New Mexico Bankers' Association Convention at Grand Canyon, Ariz.
Oct. 10-12—Donna Ana County Fair at Las Cruces.
Oct. 15-16—Annual Convention of Southwestern Holiness Ass'n at Moriarty.

Magdalena is to have better mail facilities.

A big barbecue emphasized beet sugar day at Las Cruces.

A rifle meet will be a feature of the state fair at Albuquerque.

The Camp Deming Y. M. C. A. hall has been formally dedicated.

A political debate was a feature of the opening day at the State Fair at Albuquerque.

Contrary to the general impression, the 640-acre homestead measure is not yet law.

Tuscedo, a Navajo Indian, was killed near Defiance station by being run over by a train.

Deming now claims the largest auditorium in the state—built by private individuals.

Ground has been broken for Magdalena's new high school. The building will cost $22,000.

The home of Mrs. Jennie Gallegos, of Albuquerque, was destroyed by fire, with all its contents.

Roswell has practically completed a fund of $12,000 for advertising the climate in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Price Watkins, at Hollywood ranch, near Deming, celebrated their silver wedding.

Cattlemen will go to sugar beet raising in the Mesilla valley according to reports received at Santa Fe.

Gen. Eugene A. Carr's saddle, used throughout his military career, has been presented to the State Historical Society.

Suit for $5,000 damages for personal injuries was instituted in Federal Court at Santa Fe by R. T. Holton, of Curry county, against John N. James.

August saved the situation for New Mexico crops, according to the climatic report for the month past issued by the U. S. Weather Bureau.

Louis Carotto, charged at Gallup with abduction, was arrested at Albuquerque by Chief J. R. Galusha and City Marshal Chris Christian of Gallup.

Geo. Anderson, who lived southeast of Tucuman, was shot and killed by his brother-in-law, Lee Anderson, according to a confession made by the latter.

The total receipts from the sales and rentals of state lands in New Mexico, up to November 30, will likely be $700,000 this year, a gain of $200,000 over last year.

A petition in voluntary bankruptcy has been filed in Federal Court by Austin Hugh Ullin of Clovis, who gives his occupation as a laborer, his liabilities at $463.81 and his assets at $82.

"Centralization of the cattle interests of New Mexico is needed," says Senator B. F. Pankey of Lamy, one of the executive board of the New Mexico Cattle and Horse Growers' Association.

W. O. Van Arsdale, of Wichita, Kas., was in Clovis a few days ago, and announced that his company was putting in 3,500 acres in wheat on their large body of land, twenty-seven miles northeast of Clovis.

Business men of Roswell have taken steps toward a vote of a bond issue of $100,000 for good roads in Chaves county.

Recruits who went to Columbus to enter the National Guard and who were rejected, or who met delays before being mustered in, are to be reimbursed for their outlay in transportation and for loss of time.

Governor McDonald has appointed the following notaries public: Edith Geyer, Roswell; O. P. Hunt, Capitlan; Alfred H. Long, Esq.; Alberto C. Ortega, Pastura; J. A. Hurst, Dawson; F. W. Rosenfeld, Silver City.

Thirty thousand dollars damages are asked by E. D. Sibley in a suit filed against the Santa Fe Railroad Company. Sibley, while motoring in the Mesilla valley was struck by the train from Albuquerque and received personal injuries.

With one accord the co-eds of the University of New Mexico have united to take a swat at the high cost of high living. They have put a ban on taxicabs. That is, they have announced they will not ride in a taxicab with the boys to dances or other affairs.

Beginning Oct. 1st, the El Paso & Southwestern railroad intends inaugurating a regular daily passenger service connecting with the main line, which parallels the Mexican border, and Tynone, where is located the properties of the Burro Mountain Copper Company.

A rattlesnake which made its home in the cellar at the homestead of J. X. Dunlap in Curry county, sank its fangs into the leg of the 18-month-old child of Dunlap. Despite all that medical aid could do, the child died from the poison.

RATON DOCTOR KILLED

HURRYING TO DENVER IN AUTO TO MEET FAMILY.

Crushed Body of Well-Known Specialist Found by Tourists on Road South of Pueblo, Colo.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.
Raton, N. M.—Dr. W. S. Connett, 45, of this city, a specialist in children's diseases, was killed almost instantly eighteen miles south of Pueblo, Colo., on the north and south highway when his touring car crashed from the road and turned turtle. Dr. Connett's body was found by tourists crushed beneath the engine shortly after the accident. Dr. Connett, alone, was driving toward Denver to meet his wife and daughter. The roadway is an almost perfect boulevard where the accident occurred and people who had passed him a few minutes before he turned over say that he was driving at a very moderate rate of speed. Dr. Connett was one of the most widely known physicians in New Mexico. He was a thirty-second degree Mason and stood high in his profession. He is survived by a widow and one daughter.

Geronimo Festival at Taos.

Taos—It is evident that this year Taos will celebrate its typical annual feast of San Geronimo as never before in the history of Taos. The business men and other residents of Taos have contributed very liberally so that the feast may be given all the importance possible, and that the visitors from the different parts of the union Sept. 30 will have a good time. The program will be as follows: Foot races and barrel races around the park, band concert, masquerade, carnival, Indian dances, relay races by the Indians, chifonettes, pugilistic encounters, matachines by the Indians, the grandest Indian spectacle in America; horse races, 600 yards; broncho "busting," etc.

Tax Board Makes $10,000,000 Raise.

Santa Fe—After a nine-day session the State Tax Commission has adjourned. The commission found $304,690,372 of taxable property on the rolls. It is estimated that about $10,000,000 in increases has been put on the rolls, bringing the assessable property to about $315,000,000.

Scottish Rite Reunion at Santa Fe.

Santa Fe—The Twenty-second Reunion of the Scottish Rite bodies in this valley will be held Oct. 5, 6 and 7, at which time all of the Scottish Rite degrees up to and including the Thirty-second degree will be conferred in the well equipped Scottish Rite Cathedral in this city.

Of Interest to Women.

Santa Fe—Attorney General Frank W. Clancy ruled upon request of Mrs. Laura Wilson Johnson of Palomas Hot Spring, Sierra county, that women are not eligible to any offices except those specifically enumerated in the state constitution: county school superintendent or school director.

Sugar Beet Acreage Signed Up.

Las Cruces—The result of over a month's steady work by public spirited citizens of the Mesilla Valley was brought to a whirlwind finish, when all of the necessary acreage to locate a sugar beet factory at Las Cruces had been signed up.

To Resume Surveys.

Santa Fe—United State Surveyors F. E. Joy and Basil C. Perkins have arrived to resume under the direction of Surveyor General Lucius Dills, the survey of the Pueblo grants, beginning with Tesuque, nine miles north of Santa Fe.

Three Arrested for Killing Brakeman.

Deming—Jose Murillo, Romulo Martinez and Paul Carrillo are under arrest charged with the murder of G. C. Stevenson, Southern Pacific brakeman, shot to death west of Wilma. Murillo and Martinez were captured at Gage and Carrillo was arrested at Separ. Carrillo speaks good English and tallies with Brakeman Wilson's description of the man who had no part in the attack. Carrillo's story does not agree with that told here by Brakeman Wilson before the coroner's jury. Carrillo declared the railroad men were the aggressors.

Judge Pope Laid to Rest.

Santa Fe—Every section of New Mexico was represented among those who paid their last tribute to Federal Judge William H. Pope. Flowers rare and sweet-scented in almost measureless profusion attested how near to the hearts of many the eminent jurist had come. In harmony with the simplicity of his life and conduct there was no ostentation in the funeral ceremonies.

Government Given Right-of-Way.

Santa Fe—For the Federal Court here Judge Robert E. Lewis, of the United States District Court of Colorado, has handed down an order giving the federal government immediate right-of-way across the Santa Fe railroad tracks and property in Eddy county, in order that the government may construct protection for the railroad property against possible damage from the Carlsbad irrigation project, where the reclamation service is building additional spillways.

HUSBAND OBJECTS TO OPERATION

Wife Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Des Moines, Iowa.—"Four years ago I was very sick and my life was nearly spent. The doctors stated that I would never get well without an operation and that without it I would not live one year. My husband objected to any operation and got me some of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and commenced to get better and am now well, am stout and able to do my own housework. I can recommend the Vegetable Compound to any woman who is sick and run down as a wonderful strength and health restorer. My husband says I would have been in my grave ere this if it had not been for your Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. BLANCHETTE JEFFERSON, 703 Lyon St., Des Moines, Iowa.

Before submitting to a surgical operation it is wise to try to build up the female system and cure its derangements with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it has saved many women from surgical operations.

Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice—it will be confidential.

Ask for and Get SKINNER'S THE HIGHEST QUALITY SPAGHETTI

36 Page Recipe Book Free
SKINNER MFG. CO. OMAHA, U.S.A.
LARGEST MACARONI FACTORY IN AMERICA

APPENDICITIS

If you have been threatened or have GALLSTONES, KIDNEYSTONES, GAS or PAINS in the right side write for valuable book of information FREE

S. B. BOWMAN, DEPT. W. S. 210 S. DULUTH ST., CHICAGO

COULD NOT CORNER MIKE

Mr. Flaherty Ready With Explanation for Failure to Keep Awake in Church.

One Saturday evening Mr. Flaherty said to her husband, who is a successful contractor: "Mike, Father Burke is to preach tomorrow at St. Patrick's church, and you've often told me you wanted to hear him." "Yes, Jane, I do want to hear him. They say he's a fine speaker." "But, for pity's sake, Mike, if you do come with me, keep awake! You know you're always falling asleep during the sermons."

"I'll do my best, Jane." Next day, when Father Burke began to preach, Mike watched him for five minutes, and then dropped off to sleep. When they were back home Jane gave Mike a tongue lashing.

"Well, Jane," said Mike in self-defense, "it's just this way. When I engage a new hand I watch him to see if he's on the job. As soon as I find he's efficient and hard-working I don't bother about him any more. Now, as soon as Father Burke began I saw he was right on to his job, and so I didn't worry about him. And then, in spite of myself, I let go.—Everybody's Magazine.

Looks So.

Patience—I see sixty thousand women in London were thrown out of work by the war.

Patience—Oh, did the war stop bridge whist?

Brightens One Up

There is something about Grape-Nuts food that brightens one up, infant or adult, both physically and mentally.

What is it?

Just its delightful flavor, and the nutriment of whole wheat and barley, including their wonderful body and nerve building mineral elements!

A crisp, ready-to-eat food, with a mild sweetness all its own; distinctive, delicious, satisfying—

Grape-Nuts

"There's a Reason"